2011 4-H Spring Activities

KY Saves Week Piggy Bank Design Contest

The Clinton County Extension Office sponsored a Piggy Bank Design Contest to promote KY Saves Week February 20-27th. Piggy banks were voted on during the Homemakers Christmas Village in December. Overall, 136 piggy banks were designed by youth in the county. By casting a vote for a penny, the contest raised $156 for the Homemakers Scholarship program. The youth with the top winning piggy banks were Carly Upchurch-first place,

Addison Bernard-second place, and Michael Smith-third place. Carly Upchurch's piggy bank advanced to the Extension District level competition where she placed as one of the top District Representatives. Her piggy bank was on display at the Capitol Rotunda in Frankfort throughout the month of February along with other piggy bank winners from throughout the state.

Judge Huff and Mayor Smith are shown with Carly along with her winning piggy bank design of a horse and $50 check from the Clinton County 4-H Council. Congratulations Carly!
