CULTURAL ARTS EXHIBIT RULES

All Extension Homemakers are encouraged to submit "original" items for competition in state exhibits.

Each article must be the work of a homemaker member and must have been completed during the past two (2) years.

Champion (purple ribbon) entries from previous years in each category or subcategory are not eligible for in another KEHA cultural arts contest.

Areas may exhibit one item from each category and /or subcategory. Maximum number 80.

Identification of item should be on tag provided by state.

The Exhibitor and/or their representative are responsible for transporting exhibits to and from the state meeting.

Each Exhibitor must provide their own materials to properly display their item. Tape and nails cannot be used on the walls. If items are best displayed vertically, please provide a well identified easel or means of hanging exhibit from the wall.

Entries will be exhibited by category. Entries will be judged by subcategory when indicated. All items will be judged and entries will receive a participant ribbon. Exhibitor is responsible for category/subcategory determination.

Extreme care should be taken at the county and area level to place entries in the correct category. Entries entered in the wrong category will be moved to the correct category, if possible. Entries entered in the wrong category, where there is no correct category available or where there is already another entry, will be disqualified.

Blue ribbons are awarded for high quality work, the number depending on the quality of the entries. A championship purple ribbon is awarded to best of the blue ribbon entries in each category.

Neither the Kentucky Extension Homemakers Association nor the University of Kentucky will be responsible for any lost, misplaced, or broken items. We do not anticipate any misfortune, but this disclaimer must be clearly understood by all Exhibitors.

The exhibits will be hosted at all times. Additional security will be provided when necessary.

If categories are to be eliminated, there will be a one year notice.
