The overall mission of the Kentucky Agricultural Development Fund is to help the agriculture community diversify their agricultural operations and increase net farm income. To that end, the County Agricultural Investment Program (C.A.I.P.) was developed to provide cost-share assistance to individual producers through a local program administrator. To judge the success and impact of this program, as well as monitor the distribution of these funds, the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board requires the below information. This information is required for a producer to receive funding.

All confidential information provided by the applicant shall be protected by the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board and the County Agricultural Development Council, as outlined in the C.A.I.P. guidelines and the Kentucky Open Records Act, KRS 61.870 to 61.884.
