Welcome Back

Hope you had a fun and safe summer! Gallatin County 4-H has been busy this summer with day camp, 4-H camp, State Communications, County Fair, State Teen Conference and various 4-H Project Days. I have enjoyed each and every 4-H'er who participated in these events. Look throughout this newsletter for pictures of you and your friends. Now that we are back in school, it is time for project and after-school clubs to start. We have added another Cloverbud Club just for 3rd graders!! The Kentucky State Fair is Thursday, August 19 – Saturday, August 28th. Several girls from the 4-H sewing club will be a “mannequin” at the Kentucky State Fair. I look forward to a new school year and working with each and every one of you. Let's make this the best year ever!

Submit Your Results For Awards Booklet

Due Thursday, October 14 at 4:30 p.m.

Recognition of all our 4-H members accomplishments is an important aspect of the 4-H Recognition Banquet. 4-Her's who have received a county, area, district, or state or national 4-H award are asked to submit items for which he/she would like to be recognized. Please submit written (e-mail is fine) your name of the 4-H event, and the award received. All results will be compiled in a booklet distributed at the 4-H Banquet, which is Sunday, November 7th.

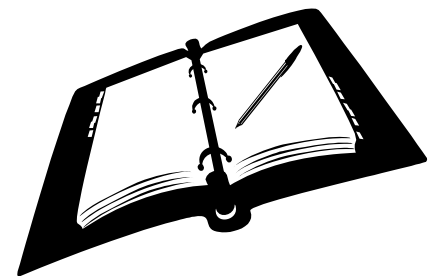

Example List:

- Sally Doe
- *2010 4-H State Communication Contest – Sewing Demonstration, blue.
- *2010 4-H County Grand Champion Swine, blue.
- *2010 4-H District Talent Show, blue.

Also list other activities you have done for the 4-H Passport to receive your “rainbow of 4-H ribbons”. You will also receive a gift certificate from the Gallatin County 4-H Council. The certificate

Example:

Jane Doe participated in: County Fair Exhibits, purple ribbon Demonstration, Speech, Fashion Revue, Variety Show, Skillathon, or Judging Event, Green Ribbon 4-H Camp, Day Camp, or Sewing Camp, Blue Ribbon Record books, Honors Program, Teen Summit, Teen Conference, Gold Ribbon Club or Individual Service project, Serve on 4-H event committee and/or make presentations, Orange Ribbon Pumpkin Festival or Project Days, Red Ribbon Don't forget to turn in your community service hours for a “surprise” award. All of this is due by Thursday, October 14th at 4:30 p.m.

Upcoming

State Communications Event

Congratulations to Kurt Deaton for his demonstration on a fruit smoothie, Kelli Deaton on her demonstration on Sewing/Clothing and for Olivia Urso for her demonstration on Rapid Rabbit Rescue. All three 4-Her's won at the county and district level and participated at the state level in Lexington.

4-H State Teen Conference

"See Green" was the theme of this year's 4-H Teen Conference held on the UK campus June 14-17. Attending from Gallatin County were: Alex Kearns, Kurt Deaton, Lindsey Oliver, Greg Humphries, Marlina Jones, Dylan Wesley, Alysse Kearns, Jack Wright, Sam Wright, Joseph Ackermann, Eli Ackermann, Luke Ackermann, and Mariah Gulion represented Gallatin County well in the State Fashion Show with her dress that she made for her 4-H sewing project. She looked fabulous! Marlina Jones and Alysse Kearns both represented Gallatin County as well by earning their Bronze Award. They are now working towards their Silver award. Good job to all three girls! At the Conference, delegates had the opportunity to elect new state 4-H officers. Congratulations to all! President: James Westerfield, Trigg County

Vice President: Nick Yeast, Mercer County
Secretary: Sarah Rowlette, Madison County
Treasurer: Zach Turner, Fayette County

Minute To Win It

Do you have what it takes? Kick off the new 4-H year with teens from other counties and participate in the fun, fast paced game Minute to Win It on Saturday, September 18th from noon to 4:00 p.m. at the Pendleton County Fairgrounds. We need teams of four to participate. The only thing you have to bring is your sense of humor and game faces! If you are interested in participating, please contact me at 567-5481. Remember we need teams of four!

Club News

Cloverbuds (K-1)

This 4-H club is designed for Kindergarten and 1st graders in mind! Once a month we get together to make crafts, sing songs, learn how to make nutritious snacks with the theme being on the food pyramid.. The first club meeting is Monday, August 23rd from 3:00 p.m. – 4:15 p.m. at the lower elementary cafeteria. Permission slips are available in the Family Resource Center newsletter. You must have a permission slip to attend.

Cloverbuds (Grade 2)

Some of you were in Cloverbuds last year. We sang songs, make afterschool snacks, made crafts and played games. Of course this year we will be making afterschool snacks and crafts but they will not be the same thing you did last year. You are all a year older, so new things for your club! This year's theme is gardening. Hope to see you Monday, August 30 from 3:00 p.m. - 4:15 p.m. at the Lower Elementary Cafeteria. Permission slips are available in the Family Resource Center newsletter. You must have a permission slip to attend.

Cloverbuds (Grade 3)

Wednesday, August 18th from 3:00-4:15pm is the start of a new Cloverbud Club just for 3rd graders. The theme this year is Acres of the Adventures starting with fast food agriculture.

WOW Wednesday (Grades 4-5)

Some of you were in WOW Wednesday last year and some of you are moving up to WOW Wednesday. We have all kinds of fun. There is a lot of cooking and eating involved! We also do community service projects for the nursing home, the military and other people if they need something. The first club date is Wednesday, August 25th. Permission slips are available in the Family Resource Center newsletter or enclosed in this newsletter. You need a permission slip to attend!!!

2010 GALLATIN COUNTY FAIR

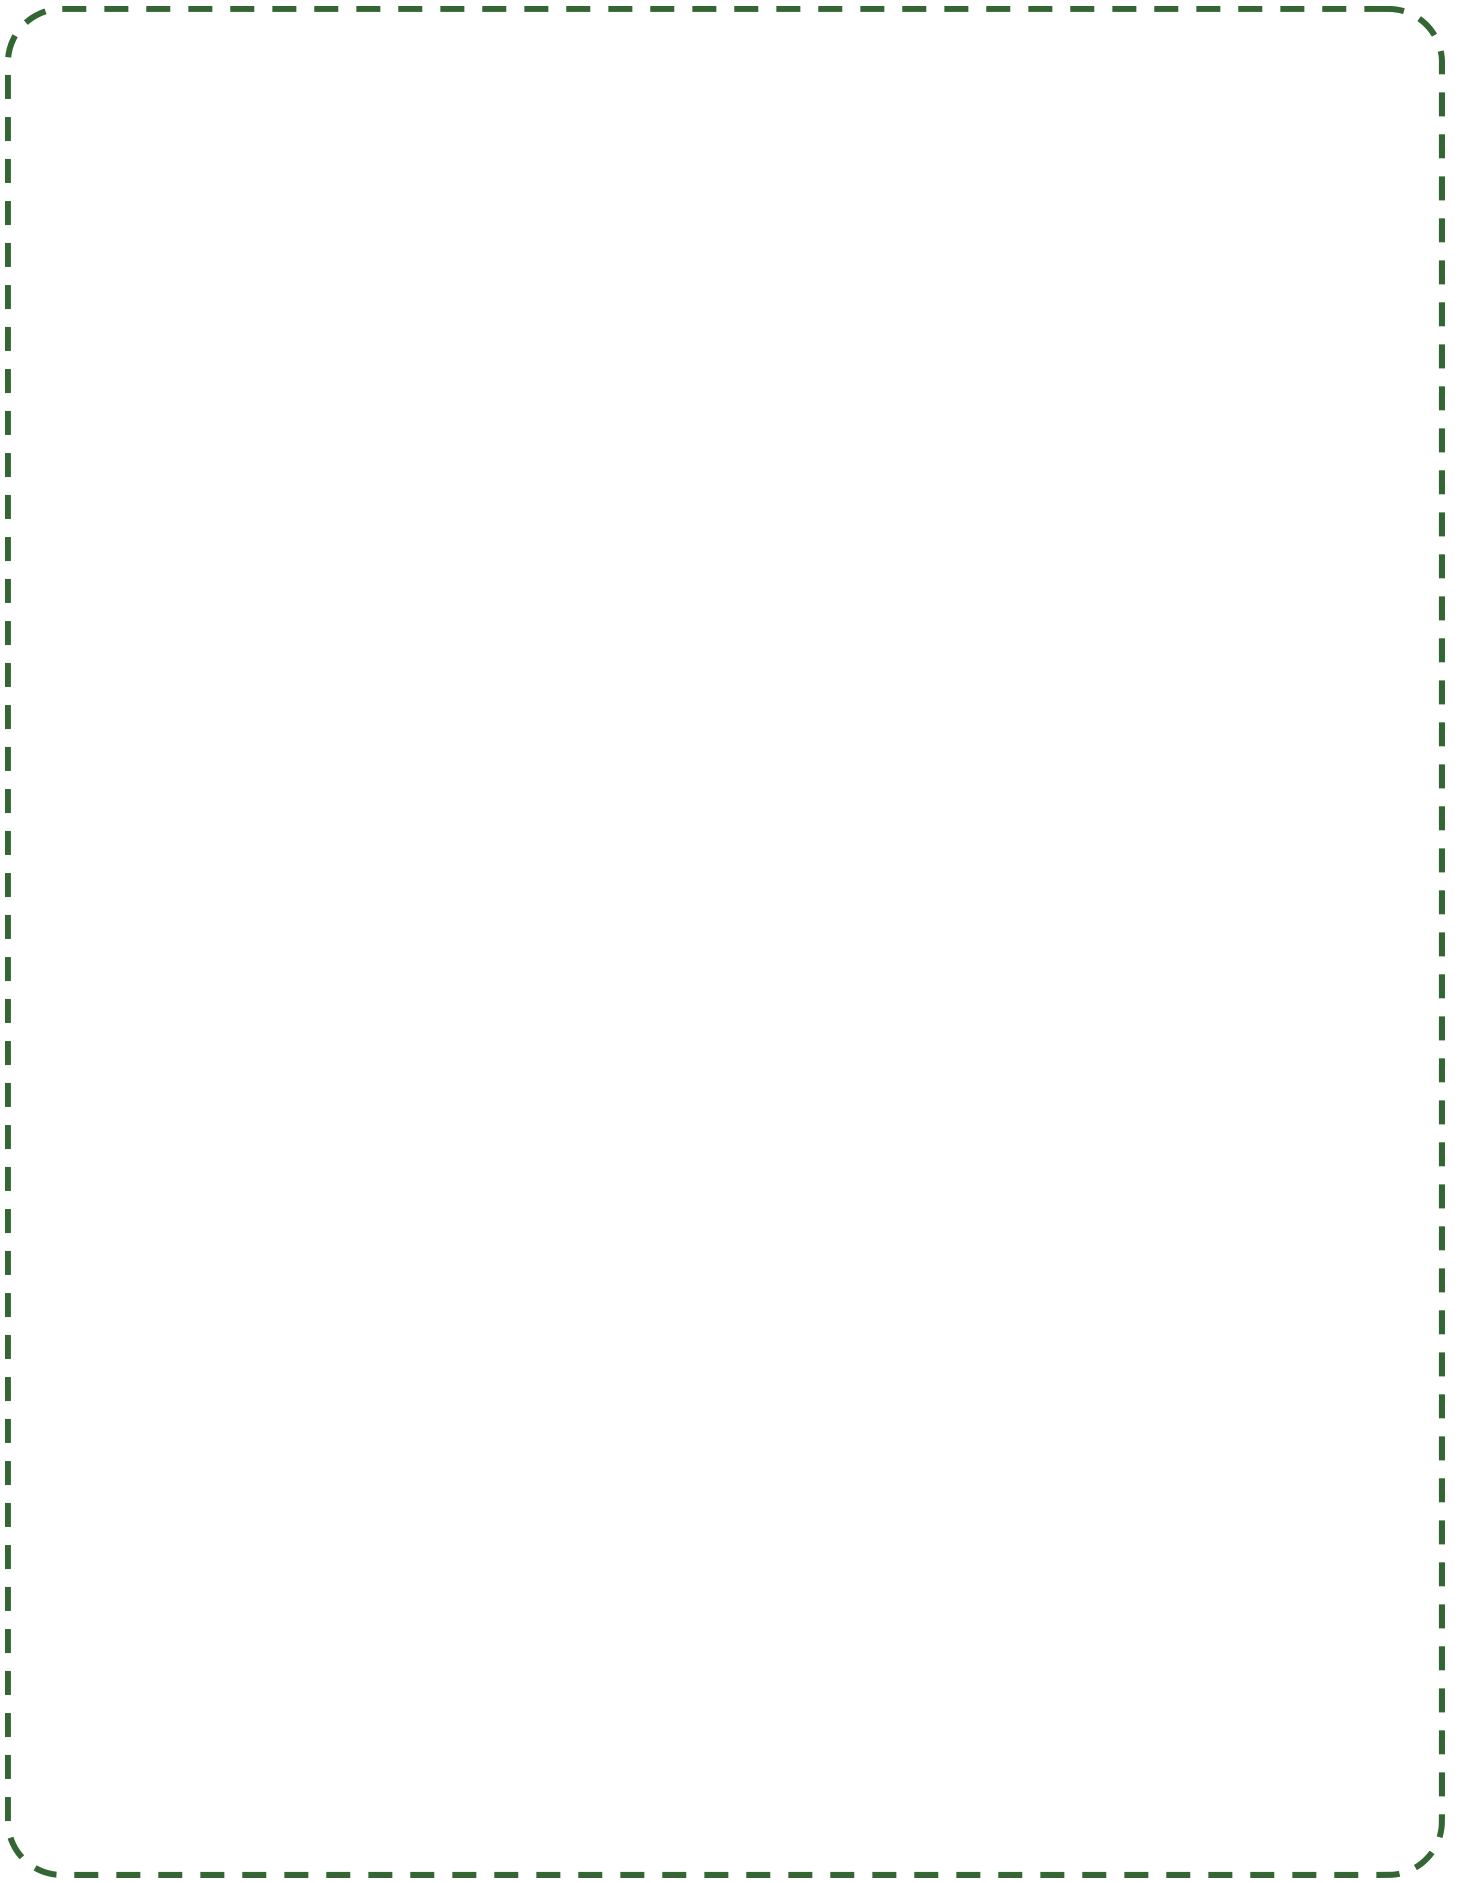

2010 4-H CAMP

4-H Camp

Thank you! We had another great year at camp with 46 campers, 6 teen counselors, and 4 adults attending. I would like to thank Una Jones, Lucy Deaton, and David Hull, as well as the JC's—
For the Girls: Alysse Kearns, Mariah Gullion, Marlina Jones, and Mikkah Hignite and for the Boys: Josh Morley, Brandt Sullivan, Nathan Messenger, Jack Wright, and Sam Wright. Nathan, Jack, and Sam did a great job helping with the Boone County kids! I could not do it without you! I would also like to give a special thanks to Spike Wright for coming to camp to tell stories!
