

TEEN LEADERSHIP GREEN COUNTY

COOPERATIVE
EXTENSION SERVICE

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the Teen Leadership Green County program is to provide teens the opportunity to learn more about their community and its development, to provide a forum for networking, to help develop strong leadership skills, and to foster a desire to serve others.

GOALS

- To select high school freshman, sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have leadership qualities and concern for their community
- To present in-depth programs that will acquaint participants with community needs, opportunities, problems and resources, and allow interaction with community leaders and decision makers
- To foster students' interest in voluntary participation in their community
- To encourage understanding and acceptance of civic responsibilities and leadership roles
- To provide opportunities for students from different areas of the community to interact, express their views and opinions and develop mutual trust and respect

SELECTION PROCESS

Teen Leadership Green County is open to students who have an interest in the growth and improvement of Green County and a desire to improve their own leadership skills.

The application is available from Tyrone Gentry in hard copy, or you may find in on the following website: www.GreenCounty4-H.org. If you use the website, print out a copy and return to Tyrone Gentry. Responses to the application questionnaire will be of major importance in the decision of the selection committee. The application deadline is August 28. Students should return the completed application form to Tyrone Gentry at the Green County Cooperative Extension Service, 106 South Public Square, Greensburg, KY 42743.

A selection committee will review the applications and select 10 participants using the confidential application form. This means that your name should appear only on the first page of the application.

TIME COMMITMENT:

You will be expected to attend all meetings.
