World's Chicken Festival Cooking Contest

The Laurel County Extension Service and the Kentucky Poultry Federation are proud sponsors of the 2009 World's Chicken Festival Cooking Contest. Any Kentucky resident may enter the contest with a chicken main dish recipe. Each entry must fit into the category of main dish and include chicken as the main ingredient. Contestants must be eligible for one of two divisions: adult or junior/senior high (grades 7-12). Foods professionals such as chefs, home economists, etc. are not eligible to participate and only one cook-off participant per family. Recipes must be submitted to the Laurel County Extension Office, 200 County

Any chicken main dish can be entered.

Extension Rd, London, KY 40741, by September 4th. Entries will not be acknowledged or returned. Judges' decisions are final. All recipes submitted become the property of the Laurel County Extension Service and will be distributed as they see fit. Three finalists will be chosen in each division to participate in a final cook-off on Saturday, September 26th at the 2009 World's Chicken Festival in London. Participants must furnish enough food and supplies to prepare the recipe twice and must observe standard food safety preparation guidelines. Total preparation time should not exceed one hour. Finalists will be notified and given more details by September 18th. Special provisions for parking, unloading and loading will be made for finalists in the cook-off. A first, second and third prize will be awarded in each division. First prize will be $400.00, second prize $200.00 and third prize $100.00. Taxes on prizes are the responsibility of the winner.

Recipe Requirements

- Submit as many recipes as you wish by September 4th, but each recipe must be on a separate sheet of paper.
- Print or type your name, address, and telephone number on each recipe. Also specify age category.
- All ingredients should be familiar to most people and available locally. All recipes must have a maximum preparation and cooking time of one hour.
- Recipes should contain exact measurements, cooking utensils, preparation time and temperature.

Judging

- All eligible recipes will be judged on overall nutritional quality, ease of preparation, suitability to today's fast-paced lifestyle, taste appeal, creative combination of chicken with other foods and appearance.
- Three recipes will be selected in each division by qualified judges. A final cook-off will be held on Saturday, September 26th, at "The Kitchen" located at the Farmers Market. Finalists will be notified by September 18th.
- All entrants automatically consent to the use of their name and likeness for promotional and publicity purposes without restriction, compensation or advance notification, and relinquish any and all rights and interest regarding their recipes.
- Only one winner per family.
