

Marshall County 4-H Clubs

After-School 4-H Clubs

Meet once a month at the schools right at the end of the day until 4:30 pm. The elementary clubs consist of 4th and 5th graders. The middle school clubs involve 6th through 8th grade students. Programs through the year include environmental issues, leadership development, nutrition, conflict resolution, and community service.

Sharp Shooters 4-H Club

This is Marshall County's 4-H shooting sports group. Club members learn the proper and safe ways to target shoot. They have certified coaches in trap, archery, .22 rifle & pistol, air rifle & pistol, and BB.

4-H Trailblazers Club

If you like horses this is the club for you. And you do not have to own a horse to join. There are several activities youth can be involved in that do not require a horse. During the year, the Trailblazers are involved in horse judging and other horse related contest, trail rides at LBL, and much more.

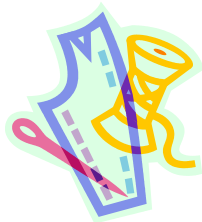

Marshall County 4-H Teen Club

Members are any high school student who wants to further develop their leadership skills and likes to take trips to meet teens from across Kentucky. Members serve as 4-H Camp Teen Counselors, participate in Issues Conference, take part in teen retreats, and more.

4-H Cooking Club

Members consist of BMS, SMMS and high school students. Club members learn new cooking skills as well as enjoy delicious food. The club does a variety of programs such as cake decorating, grilling, canning, and much more.

4-H Sewing Club

This is our newest club which is being offered to all Marshall County 4th through 8th grade students.
