Tompkinsville, Kentucky

Arts & Crafts Application

The Monroe Arts Council and the Tompkinsville Jaycees invite you to participate in the Arts and Crafts Fair section of the Monroe County Watermelon Festival which is always held the Saturday before Labor Day. The 32nd Annual Watermelon Festival will be on Saturday, Sept. 3th on Main Street in Tompkinsville. You will not be allowed to chose your location. Booth spaces will be issued in the order they are received. The Arts & Crafts Fair will be held rain or shine. No booth fees will be refunded due to rain.

Booth rental for approved arts & crafts is $25 for a 10 X 10 space. Arts & craft booths are handmade items or items that have some type of handwork applied to them. Awnings are not provided but required by the committee. The committee also requires the use of table coverings to improve the overall appearance of the festival.

Booth space will be assigned when booth fee is paid. Bring your own tables and chairs! No electrical outlets are available. Vendors will only be allowed to sell items which they list on this registration sheet and are approved by the committee. Booths can set up any time after 6:30 a.m. (CDT) on Saturday. Vendors can only set up on Saturday morning and must arrive by 9 a.m. (CST) otherwise the booth will be assigned to other vendors. The fair will open at 9 a.m. and booths must close by 5 p.m. for clean-up. Booths must be completely cleared by 5:30 p.m.

No beverages may be sold. Food can not be sold except for approved foods sold by Monroe County non-profit organizations who make special arrangements in advance with the sponsors.
