Programs & Projects

Secret Santa

On the first Saturday of December youth, ages 4 thru 12, shop for gifts handmade by Homemaker Members. Proceeds support 4-H and community service projects.

Backpack Project

This project is coordinated by Extension Homemakers and 4-H Club Members. School supplies and monetary donations from Homemakers, 4-H members, civic groups, churches, businesses, and citizens are organized then distributed to students K-12 through the Woodford County Schools' Family Resource Centers.

Homemaker Scholarships

Two college scholarships up to $1,000.00 each may be awarded to Woodford County graduating seniors who will be attending a Kentucky college or university. The Sarah T. Feltner Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student majoring in Family and Consumer Sciences or a related field. The Jenny Carr Scholarship is awarded to an active 4-H member who has at least five years membership in 4-H.

Funding for the scholarships is provided through Homemaker club donations, cookbook sales, volunteer work at the county fair and other fundraising events. Application forms and guidelines for each scholarship are available from the Woodford County Cooperative Extension Service and are due by April 1.
